Canadian based audio theatre Production Company launches original anthology series of mystery and suspense to World Wide audience.

CHATHAM-KENT, ONTARIO – July 03, 2018: This first installment of the Dark of the Moon Inn anthology collection has five original tales of suspense and mystery including; Finding His Voice, The Doctor Is In, Personal Delivery, Every Now and Then and School Spirit which was recorded in front of a live audience.

Each story was written by award winning writer, director, producer, and composer George Zarr of Chicago and features a full cast of actors with engaging sound effects and original music. David Farquhar, Executive Producer of Voices in the Wind Audio Theatre says, “This is truly an international production as we engaged voice actors from Canada, United States and Great Britain to be a part of the casts.”

Dark of the Moon Inn is available as a digital download and on MP3 CD through our global distribution partner Blackstone Publishing via all the major audiobook online sites such as Audible, Amazon, Downpour, iTunes, Google Play, Barnes and Noble, Indigo, Walmart and Overdrive for the Library market. Two singles from the collection, Finding His Voice and The Doctor Is In are also being released separately at the end of July.

“Well hidden among the trees along the tranquil waters of Lake Waseosa sits the Dark of the Moon Inn, an unsettling 19th century bed and breakfast where unsuspecting guests attempt to unwind from the trials and tribulations of everyday life. Instead, they find themselves veering towards that place where wandering minds cross into the darker and stormier depths of the all-encompassing nighttime.”
